HoopLA Says:

New Shows at Barnsdall Art Park

Barnsdall Art Park is launching two exhibitions, Robert Williams: SLANG Aesthetics!, which showcases his exciting new work, and 20 Years Under the Influence of Juxtapoz, a celebration of the pioneering publication's 20th Anniversary. Both are kicking off LAMAG's exciting 2015 arts season. Robert Williams has chosen the country's last municipal art gallery for his show, which is on view from February 22-April 19. Together, the shows commemorate two decades of Juxtapoz magazine, founded by Williams in 1994, and its vast influence on several generations of artists. Events include a talk with Robert Williams (Saturday, 2 pm), a curator's talk (March 14, 2 pm), and a book signing for Williams' new book with Baby Tattoo (March 28, 2 pm). Saturday, 6-8 pm; 4800 Hollywood Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90027; 323.644.6275
