LAist Says: The William Grant Still Arts Center in West Adams opens Return of the Mecca: The Art of Islam and Hip-Hop, a new art show on Islam and hip-hop, from its early jazz roots and the golden age of hip-hop through to today. The collection includes 200 LPs and cassettes, a media room, and rare archival clippings, posters, footage, original photos by Jamel Shabazz, Ernie Paniccioli, Eric Coleman, B+ and others. The show, part of the citywide LA/Islam Arts Initiative, runs through Nov. 22. The opening reception is on Saturday from 3-6 pm.
