EVENT DETAILS

35TH ANNUAL WATTS TOWERS DAY OF THE DRUM FESTIVAL (SATURDAY, SEPT 24)

In celebration of the 55th anniversary of Watts Towers Arts Center, an all-star line-up of world class musicians, singers, and dancers will come together at the 35th Annual Watts Towers Day of the Drum Festival, which is free and open to the public. The festival is presented by the City of Los Angeles Department of Cultural Affairs (DCA) and the Friends of Watts Towers Arts Center and takes place from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. at 1727 East 107th Street, Los Angeles, CA, 90002. Led by Masters of Ceremonies Ndugu Chanler and James Janisse, the event begins with a Yoruba ground blessing ceremony by Alaadun. Korean Classical Music and Dance Company will follow and afterwards guests can experience the rhythms of North African Moroccan music with Amazigh 6/8. The festival's activities are complimented by two solo exhibitions, Carlos Spivey's "The Power of Love," and Sammy Davis' "It's All About the Bass" both on view through March 5, 2017; guided tours of the Watts Towers of Simon Rodia; supervised children's activities; and food along with arts and crafts for sale.
