Monday, October 7th 2019, 12:33 PM EDT

Manu Intiraymi, the star from Star Trek: Voyager, Star Trek: Renegades, One Tree Hill, is to host the Award Ceremony at the Hollywood Silver Screen Festival. This industry accolade event is on Sun Oct 13th at the Warner Grand Theater. Many Oscar & Emmy winners & nominees are among the celebrities & industry VIPs who confirmed attendance. The night features a fashion show by Sue Wong and live music and dance performances. The festival will open with 2019 Academy Award winning film Skin.

Manu Intiraymi, known internationally for his role in Star Trek: Voyager, Star Trek: Renegades and as Billy, the villain, in One Tree Hill, is to host the Award Ceremony at Hollywood Silver Screen Festival 2019. This highly-anticipated event is to be held on Sunday, Oct 13th at the Warner Grand Theater in San Pedro. This magnificent 1930s art deco theater is the only one of the three original Warner Bros Studio theaters left. As an important piece of Hollywood history, the theater is just the appropriate venue for a night of Hollywood celebration.

The Executive Producer of Hollywood Silver Screen Festival is the award-winning film director and actress, Dr. Petra Deeter. Her recent movie, Reborn, a narrative drama about domestic violence, has received many awards and honors and has been screened in theaters around the world, including the legendary Chinese Theaters in Hollywood. Dr. Deeter comments "Visual storytelling has the power to influence, teach, inspire and enrich our lives. It can bring hope, clarity and understanding. It breaks boundaries and forges connections between people, between people and dreams, ideas and visions. The Hollywood Silver Screen Festival is all about recognizing and celebrating the artists who dedicate their lives and passion to the art of visual storytelling."

The Warner Grand Theatre is a facility of the City of Los Angeles Department of Cultural Affairs.
